

Classifieds	10-12
Comics	14
Sports	16

Daily Register

“Dr. No” for his enthusiasm for bashing runaway spending and government overreach.

“Time has come around to the point where the people are agreeing with much of what I’ve been saying for 30 years. So, I think the time is right,” said the 75-year-old Paul, who first ran for president as a Libertarian in 1988.

Paul made his announce-spoken critic of the Federal Reserve became an Internet sensation — and a prodigious fundraiser— when he made a spirited but doomed bid for the 2008 Republican presidential nomination.

First elected to Congress in 1976, he is known for holding unconventional views while keeping a smile on his

(See PAUL, page 2)

(© Staff photo by Darin Allred)

Saying goodbye

Retiring Gainesville mayor Glenn Loch (third from left) greets citizens at a reception in his honor Thursday at the Gainesville Civic Center. Loch, who has served as mayor on two different occasions, was presented gifts including a key to the city.

Is NCTC Really a Bargain?

*Oops, they forgot to include the taxes per student...
(Denton pays no NCTC taxes)*

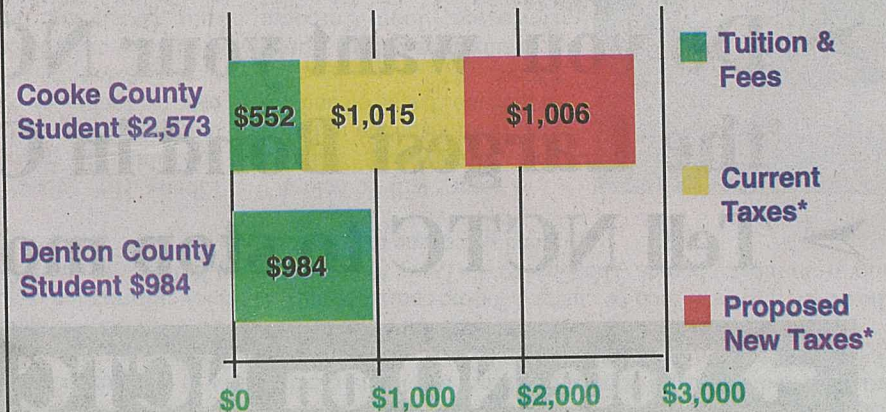

It doesn't have to cost so much!

→ Tell NCTC NO Doubling our Taxes & NO New $32,500,000 Debt

→ Vote Saturday, May 14th

* Total Cooke County Tax Obligation Divided by Total Cooke County Student Enrollment for Fall 2010 and Spring 2011 Semesters.

NCTC Costs per Student Semester

www.cookecitizens.org

Pol. Ad Paid for by Steve Gaylord, 2436 FM 2848, Valley View, TX 76272